Donna,
Thank you for your offer to help me make the most of the guys. I would love to discuss with you next week. I think they are both up to the challenges but I can use whatever support you can offer. I see things starting to move very fast and everyone is going to need to fasten their seat belts. I have already had a discussion with Joe about his taking on overflow generalist work if necessary and he is on board. Kathryn will continue to closely supervise him; so far, she has also been so supportive.

As for a call, I expect to have a proposal from Rothschild later today and Lazard said they would also provide either tonight or latest tomorrow morning. Do you want to have a call tomorrow at 9 am and then I can put together an email before I leave for Charlotte?

Regards,
Jennifer

Jennifer

Please do everything you can and send your email to Tsuyuki and Ciro before the Thursday board meeting in Tokyo (our Wednesday night). Let me know if you want to have a call this afternoon.

I think we're going to be getting busier (!) overall, so we need to be sure we stay on top of things now. Let me know if you want any support in getting the most out of Jordon and Stephen. We will need everyone focused.

Thanks
Donna
